

Continuing Instruction During School Cancellations: Promising Practices From Kentucky's Non-Traditional Instruction (NTI) Program

Webinar
March 15, 2016
1:00–2:30 p.m. EST

Agenda

Presenters

Thomas Burns, District Technology Coordinator, Lawrence County Public Schools
 David Cook, Director, Division of Innovation and Partner Engagement, Kentucky Department of Education
 David Cox, Superintendent, Corbin Independent Schools
 Kathy Fields, Superintendent, Jessamine County Public Schools
 Robbie Fletcher, Superintendent, Lawrence County Public Schools
 Michael Flory, Alliance Coordinator, REL Appalachia
 Vernon Hall, Director of Pupil Personnel, Lawrence County Public Schools
 Michael R. Muncy, Computer Training Specialist, Lawrence County Public Schools
 Beth Peterson, Branch Manager, Division of Innovation and Partner Engagement, Kentucky Department of Education

Time	Session/Presenter(s)
1:00–1:10 p.m.	Welcome and Introductions Michael Flory
1:10–1:20 p.m.	Research Overview Michael Flory
1:20–1:30 p.m.	Kentucky's Non-Traditional Instruction Program David Cook and Beth Peterson
1:30–2:15 p.m.	District Perspectives & Promising Practices Before the Snow Falls Robbie Fletcher, with Mike Muncy, Vernon Hall, and Thomas Burns During the Winter Kathy Fields After Non-Traditional Instruction Days David Cox
2:15–2:25 p.m.	Questions and Answers Michael Flory
2:25–2:30 p.m.	Closing and Feedback Michael Flory