

Agenda

Ask An Expert Online Chat: Using Student Surveys to Monitor Teacher Effectiveness

December 9, 2014

3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. EST

Goals

- To discuss the use of student surveys in monitoring teacher effectiveness
- To provide a platform for the exchange of ideas and resources with a key content expert and peers

3:00 p.m. Welcome and introduction to the webinar platform by Dr. Elizabeth Greninger, Facilitator (edCount, LLC)

3:10 p.m. Presentation by Kim Marshall, former Boston Public Schools principal, author, and consultant

Overview:

Mr. Marshall will summarize main points of the presentation from the 2013 Teacher Effectiveness Webinar Series. Participants will learn about the uses of student perception surveys and about different types of surveys and implementation approaches. They will be encouraged to think about how student surveys should be used, as well as their own experiences with surveys.

3:20 p.m. Guided Discussion: Part 1 – Successes (Q&A, shared experiences)
Using the chat feature, participants will share their successes in using student surveys to monitor teacher effectiveness. Mr. Marshall will respond to comments and use the responses to guide the conversation. At the same time, participants may share resources or ask questions.

3:30 p.m. Strategies for successful use of student surveys
Mr. Marshall will review general strategies for successful use of student surveys.

3:35 p.m. Guided Discussion: Part 2 – Challenges (Q&A, shared experiences)
Using the chat feature, participants will share challenges in using student surveys to monitor teacher effectiveness. Mr. Marshall will respond to comments and use the responses to guide the conversation. At the same time, participants may share resources or ask questions.

3:45 p.m. Guided Discussion: Part 3 – Action Steps
Participants will be asked to share planned action steps.

3:50 p.m. Question and Answer Session

3:55 p.m. Closing
