

Agenda

Redefining Ready: Connecting Adolescent Development to College Readiness
 September 29, 2013

Objectives

Participants will:

- Gain knowledge about how adolescent development influences college-going aspirations, beliefs, and behaviors
- Expand their understanding of how to recognize and support family-generated support for college readiness
- Discuss how to use a system of college readiness indicators to better prepare students for enrolling and succeeding in postsecondary education

1:00 p.m.	Welcome and introductions—REL Northwest Oregon State Coordinator Vicki Nishioka
1:20 p.m.	Keynote Dr. Mandy Savitz-Romer, Harvard Graduate School of Education, will deliver a presentation focusing on the college readiness competencies that young people need to develop in order to plan for and succeed in postsecondary education.
2:00 p.m.	Q & A
2:15 p.m.	Break
2:30 p.m.	Panel presentations Dr. Mandy Savitz-Romer, Harvard Graduate School of Education, will share challenges and professional development strategies of school personnel to build a college-going culture in the school. Dr. Suzanne Bouffard, Harvard Graduate School of Education, will discuss strategies to generate family support for student aspirations, planning, and success in college. Ms. Theresa Jahangir, REL Northwest, will discuss how to identify and use a system of college readiness indicators to better prepare students to enter and succeed in postsecondary education.
3:50 p.m.	Q & A

*This event is sponsored by REL Northwest in partnership with GEAR UP West.
 REL Northwest, a project of Education Northwest, is funded by the U.S. Department of Education Institute of Education Sciences.*

4:20 p.m.

Closing— Nishioka

4:30 p.m.

Adjourn