

Agenda

Increasing Educator Effectiveness With Culturally Responsive Teaching and Learning
November 17, 2015
1:00–2:30 p.m., Pacific Standard Time

Objectives:

- Increase district leaders' knowledge of evidence on the benefits of integrating cultural standards/culturally responsive education into teaching and school leadership practices
- Share lessons learned and strategies for involving educators in using culturally responsive, standards-based (CRSB) teaching
- Learn ways to incorporate cultural components into educator effectiveness systems

1:00–1:03 p.m.	Welcome
1:03–1:23 p.m.	Presentation on CRSB instruction from a state and district perspective
1:23–1:28 p.m.	Presenter Q & A on how CRSB strategies have been used in the Milwaukee School District and other districts in Wisconsin
1:28–1:48 p.m.	Presentation sharing examples of CRSB practices in the classroom
1:48–2:13 p.m.	Presentation on how to incorporate CRSB components into educator effectiveness evaluations
2:13–2:28 p.m.	Participant Q&A
2:28–2:30 p.m.	Close