

Charter School Leadership: How Charter School Leaders Define Their Roles and Ability to Lead

June 14, 2016

12:40-2:25 p.m. (HST)

Presented by

Dr. Dick Carpenter, Professor, University of Colorado and

Ben Cronkright, Consultant, REL Pacific at McREL

- 12:40-12:50 Welcome and Overview of REL Pacific
Ben Cronkright, Consultant, REL Pacific
- 12:50–1:10 Presentation
Dr. Dick Carpenter, University of Colorado
- What are the essential job tasks for charter school leaders?
 - How do charter school leaders define their roles and ability to lead?
- 1:10 –1:25 Question and Answer Session
Dr. Carpenter
- 1:25–1:30 Break
- 1:30–1:40 Recap
Dr. Carpenter
- 1:40–2:05 Facilitated Small-group Discussions
All
This small-group discussion will focus on the essential charter school leadership job tasks within the Hawaii charter school context: which are most important? Least important? Do charter school leaders in Hawaii define their roles and ability to lead similarly to those surveyed for the study, or are there significant differences? How does this relate to the current reality of principal and director evaluation within the Hawaii charter school landscape?
- 2:05–2:15 Small-group Report-out
All
- 2:15–2:25 Wrap-up and Survey
Ben Cronkright