

Agenda
Meaningful Math in Early Childhood Education
Research to Practice Bridge Event

Monday, October 6, 2014 1:00 – 4:00 PM EST

Renaissance Tampa International Plaza 4200 Jim Walter Blvd. Tampa, FL 22607

- 1:00 PM Welcome, Introductions and Overview
1. Overview of IES Practice Guides
 2. Scope and rationale for the Teaching Math to Young Children Practice Guide
 3. Overview of the Teaching Math to Young Children Practice Guide
 4. The five recommendations and standards of evidence
- Debbie Mazzeo, Ph.D., Senior Research Associate
Regional Educational Laboratory Southeast
- 1:30 PM In-Depth Examination of Recommendations of the Teaching Math to Young Children Practice Guide
1. Explain developmental progressions relevant to early numeracy and operations
 2. Planning math lessons and activities to support natural developmental progressions
 3. Exploring math stories, activities, and games to discover their potential
 4. Exploring math collections to learn about all five domains of math
 5. Asking and answering math questions about the world
 6. Question and answer session
- Sharon M. Carver, Ph.D., Director
Carnegie Mellon's Children's School
- 3:50 PM Closing and Survey Completion
Jimmy Cole, Regional Educational Laboratory Southeast
- 4:00 PM Event End