

How many students targeted for intervention enrolled in Kentucky's math college preparatory transition courses in 2011/12?

All 11th grade students in Kentucky take the ACT. Students who approach, but do not meet, proficiency benchmarks in math and reading are encouraged to take college preparatory transition courses in 12th grade.

See the full report here!

Follow @REL_Appalachia on Twitter for the latest information on research, data, and upcoming activities!

#RELAPFact