

REL CENTRAL: PUTTING RESEARCH INTO ACTION

REL Central at Marzano Research is one of 10 Regional Educational Laboratories funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Institute of Education Sciences.

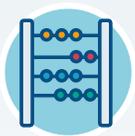

Our mission is to support a more evidence-based education system by partnering with policymakers and practitioners to conduct applied research and training in Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wyoming.

More than 270 partners, including representatives from state education agencies, regional service agencies, districts, schools, institutes of higher education, and other organizations, shape our work.

Our partnerships include . . .

Early Childhood Education Research Alliance
College and Career Readiness Research Alliance
Nebraska School Improvement Research Partnership
Colorado School Improvement Research Partnership
Missouri Equity Research Partnership

American Indian Education Research Alliance
Rural Education Research Alliance
Educator Pipeline Research Alliance
Wyoming State Support Research Partnership
North Dakota Innovative Schools Research Partnership

. . . and address educational challenges faced by students in our region, who include:

- Native American students
- Students from low-income households
- Students with disabilities
- Students in rural settings
- Students in urban settings

To learn more about REL Central partnerships, follow us on Twitter @RELCentral.

Note: REL partnerships are constantly evolving to meet the needs of the states and districts in the region. The information presented above is current as of August 2019.

Disclaimer: This work was funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Institute of Education Sciences (IES) under contract ED-IES-17-C-0007, administered by American Institutes for Research. The content of the infographic does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of IES or the U.S. Department of Education, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. government.

REL Central is operated by Marzano Research.

