

REL MID-ATLANTIC: PUTTING RESEARCH INTO ACTION

REL Mid-Atlantic at Mathematica is one of 10 Regional Educational Laboratories funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Institute of Education Sciences.

Our mission is to support a more evidence-based education system by partnering with policymakers and practitioners to conduct applied research and training in Delaware, the District of Columbia, Maryland, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania.

More than 70 partners, including representatives from state education agencies, regional service agencies, districts, institutes of higher education, and other organizations, shape our work.

Our partnerships include ...

Accountability in the ESSA Era Alliance

Addressing Disproportionality in Discipline Partnership

Family Engagement Partnership

Readiness for Career Entry and Success Alliance

School Support and Improvement Alliance

Strengthening the Early Education Continuum Alliance

Training and Supporting Excellent Educators Alliance

... and address educational challenges faced by students in our region, who include:

- African American students
- Students from low-income households
- Students with disabilities
- Students in rural settings
- Students in urban settings

To learn more about REL Mid-Atlantic partnerships, follow us on Twitter @RELMidAtlantic.

Note: REL partnerships are constantly evolving to meet the needs of the states and districts in the region. The information presented above is current as of August 2019.

Disclaimer: This work was funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Institute of Education Sciences (IES) under contract ED-IES-17-C-0007, administered by American Institutes for Research. The content of the infographic does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of IES or the U.S. Department of Education, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. government.

REL Mid-Atlantic is operated by Mathematica.

