

REL MIDWEST: PUTTING RESEARCH INTO ACTION

REL Midwest at the American Institutes for Research is one of 10 Regional Educational Laboratories funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Institute of Education Sciences.

Our mission is to support a more evidence-based education system by partnering with policymakers and practitioners to conduct applied research and training in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, and Wisconsin.

More than 90 partners, including representatives from state education agencies, regional service agencies, districts, schools, institutes of higher education, and other organizations, shape our work.

Our partnerships include ...

Midwest Achievement Gap Research Alliance

Midwest Alliance to Improve Knowledge Utilization

Midwest Alliance to Improve Teacher Preparation

Midwest Career Readiness Research Alliance

Midwest Early Childhood Education Research Alliance

Iowa Learning and Technology Networked Improvement Community

... and address educational challenges faced by students in our region, who include:

- English learners
- African American students
- Students in rural settings
- Students in urban settings

To learn more about REL Midwest partnerships, follow us on Twitter @RELMidwest.

Note: REL partnerships are constantly evolving to meet the needs of the states and districts in the region. The information presented above is current as of August 2019.

Disclaimer: This work was funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Institute of Education Sciences (IES) under contract ED-IES-17-C-0007, administered by American Institutes for Research. The content of the infographic does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of IES or the U.S. Department of Education, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. government.

REL Midwest is operated by the American Institutes for Research.

