

REL NORTHWEST: PUTTING RESEARCH INTO ACTION

REL Northwest at Education Northwest is one of 10 Regional Educational Laboratories funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Institute of Education Sciences.

Our mission is to support a more evidence-based education system by partnering with policymakers and practitioners to conduct applied research and training in Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and Washington.

More than 900 partners, including representatives from state education agencies, regional service agencies, districts, schools, institutes of higher education, and other organizations, shape our work.

Our partnerships include ...

Alaska State Policy Research Alliance

Idaho Educator Pipeline Alliance

Montana Education Research Alliance

Oregon Graduation and Postsecondary Success Alliance

Washington State Vibrant Teaching Force Alliance

Northwest Rural Improvement and Student Engagement Network (cross-state)

Equity in School Discipline Collaborative (cross-state)

Northwest Tribal Educators Alliance (cross-state)

... and address educational challenges faced by students in our region, who include:

- English learners
- Native American students
- African American students
- Hispanic students
- Students from low-income households
- Students with disabilities
- Students in rural settings
- Students in urban settings

To learn more about REL Northwest partnerships, follow us on Twitter @relnw.

Note: REL partnerships are constantly evolving to meet the needs of the states and districts in the region. The information presented above is current as of August 2019.

Disclaimer: This work was funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Institute of Education Sciences (IES) under contract ED-IES-17-C-0007, administered by American Institutes for Research. The content of the infographic does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of IES or the U.S. Department of Education, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. government.

REL Northwest is operated by Education Northwest.

