

Tools and Approaches to Measure and Improve MTSS/RTI Implementation

May 28, 2020, 2:00–3:30 p.m. EDT
Virtual

Time	Topic and Facilitator
2:00 p.m.	Welcome, purpose, and introductions Jennifer Nakamura, Partnership liaison, REL Appalachia, SRI International (SRI)
2:05 p.m.	Overview of study purpose and methodology Kirby Chow, Partnership co-lead, REL Appalachia, SRI
2:15 p.m.	MTSS/RTI implementation assessment tool characteristics Kirby Chow, Partnership co-lead, REL Appalachia, SRI
2:25 p.m.	Tool development and refinement processes Stephanie Wilkerson, Applied research lead, REL Appalachia, Magnolia Consulting
2:35 p.m.	Using study findings to inform the development of the Tennessee Department of Education’s RTI² implementation assessment tool Jennifer Nakamura, Partnership liaison, REL Appalachia, SRI
2:55 p.m.	Training and supporting tool users Stephanie Wilkerson, Applied research lead, REL Appalachia, Magnolia Consulting Stephanie Stindt, District specialist, Kansas MTSS and Alignment Team Joshua Lee, District specialist, Kansas MTSS and Alignment Team
3:20 p.m.	Q&A and wrap-up Jennifer Nakamura, Partnership liaison, REL Appalachia, SRI Kirby Chow, Partnership co-lead, REL Appalachia, SRI Stephanie Wilkerson, Applied research lead, REL Appalachia, Magnolia Consulting Erin Lavery, Director, Academic Support for Centers of Regional Excellence, Tennessee Department of Education Zachary Stone, Director of data services, Division of Special Populations, Tennessee Department of Education Stephanie Stindt, District specialist, Kansas MTSS and Alignment Team Joshua Lee, District specialist, Kansas MTSS and Alignment Team