

Teaching Young Learners in a Pandemic: Supporting Children Pre-Kindergarten to Grade 3 and Their Learning Partners at Home

Wednesday, May 6, 2020

2:00–3:00 p.m. Eastern

Webinar agenda

- | | |
|------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2:00 - 2:05 p.m. | Introduction
Christine Ross, Senior researcher, REL Mid-Atlantic |
| 2:05 – 2:15 p.m | Child development and the home-school connection in the context of a pandemic
Christine Ross, Senior researcher, REL Mid-Atlantic
Jaimie Grazi, Research analyst, REL Mid-Atlantic |
| 2:15 - 2:30 p.m. | Research-based principles for teaching young children and strategies for implementing them remotely
Christine Ross, Senior researcher, REL Mid-Atlantic
Jaimie Grazi, Research analyst, REL Mid-Atlantic |
| 2:30 – 2:40 p.m | Supporting parents and adults in their role helping young children learn
Christine Ross, Senior researcher, REL Mid-Atlantic
Jaimie Grazi, Research analyst, REL Mid-Atlantic |
| 2:40 – 2:50 p.m. | Longer-term strategies for state and local education agencies to support remote early learning
Christine Ross, Senior researcher, REL Mid-Atlantic
Jaimie Grazi, Research analyst, REL Mid-Atlantic |
| 2:50 – 3:00 p.m. | Questions and Answers
Christine Ross, Senior researcher, REL Mid-Atlantic
Jaimie Grazi, Research analyst, REL Mid-Atlantic |

3:00 p.m.

Adjourn