

Improving educational equity through cultural responsiveness in schools and educator preparation programs: A virtual workshop series

Webinar #3: Implementing district and school policies and practices to support culturally responsive pedagogy (CRP):
Cherry Hill, New Jersey

Tuesday, October 15, 2019

3:30–4:30 p.m. Eastern

Webinar agenda

- 3:30-3:35 p.m. Welcome and introductions
Amy Johnson, senior fellow, REL Mid-Atlantic at Mathematica
Steven Malick, research analyst, REL Mid-Atlantic at Mathematica
- 3:35-3:50 p.m. How has the district/school approached the challenge of being more culturally responsive?
George Guy, Jr., principal, Rosa International Middle School in Cherry Hill, New Jersey
- 3:50-4:00 p.m. What programs, policies, and practices were put in place to meet the goal of educational equity and effective CRP?
George Guy, Jr.
- 4:00-4:10 p.m. What are the core implementation considerations and challenges to address?
George Guy, Jr.
- 4:10-4:25 p.m. Question and answer
George Guy, Jr., Amy Johnson, and Steven Malick
- 4:25-4:30 p.m. Closing thoughts
Amy Johnson
- 4:30 p.m. Adjourn