

Kent ISD student well-being survey Session 2

September 13, 2021
9:00–11:00 a.m. CT
Zoom meeting

Agenda

- |                         |   |
|-------------------------|---|
| 9:00–9:10 a.m.   | Welcome, agenda, session goalsDr. Dominique Bradley will review the agenda, session goals, and timeline.  |
| 9:10–9:20 a.m.   | Kent ISD research team presentationSunil Joy, Kent ISD data analyst, will present an overview of the progress made on changes to the student well-being survey.   |
| 9:20–9:40 a.m.   | Developing focus group research questionsDr. Bradley will lead participants through the fundamental elements of research questions. Dr. Bradley and Ms. Nicole Sochaczewski will facilitate a group discussion to develop initial research questions that will guide the focus group research.  |
| 9:40–10:05 a.m.  | Using focus groups in data collectionDr. Bradley will review when focus groups are used in data collection and what types of questions they can help to answer. She will discuss important elements to consider when developing focus group samples, including what participant characteristics are important. Dr. Bradley and Ms. Sochaczewski will facilitate a group discussion to develop a focus group sample framework. |
| 10:05–10:25 a.m. | How will the focus group data be used?Dr. Bradley will discuss the importance of reflecting on what goals and outcomes are important in conducting research. This includes thinking about the audience for presenting findings. Participants will discuss their goals for dissemination of focus group findings.  |
| 10:25–10:35 a.m. | Break  |

- 10:35–10:55 a.m.      Focus group best practices
Dr. Bradley will provide an overview of best practices in conducting focus groups and using focus group protocols.
- 10:55–11:00 a.m.      Next steps and closing
Dr. Bradley will close the session by reviewing next steps for participants.
- 11:00 a.m.              Adjourn