

Latino Student Pathways to Postsecondary: Research and Stories

REL Midwest
In-Person Screening
American Institutes for Research, Chicago, Illinois
November 20, 2019

Agenda

- 2:00–2:10 p.m.      Networking
Participants will have the opportunity to network with other attendees and individuals featured in the program.
- 2:10–2:15 p.m.      Welcome and Introductions
Regional Educational Laboratory (REL) Midwest will provide a brief overview of REL Midwest and Detroit Public Television program on Latino students' pathways to their postsecondary education.
- 2:15–2:45 p.m.      Program Screening
Attendees will watch the 30-minute documentary, which covers research on evidence-based supports for Latino students as they prepare for and pursue a postsecondary education, as well as stories about Latino students' experiences in college in Michigan.
- 2:45–3:30 p.m.      Facilitated Discussion
- Luis Narvaez, strategic project director, Office of Language and Cultural Education, Chicago Public Schools
  - Andrea Cortes, postsecondary coach, Network for College Success, The University of Chicago
  - Lyzz Davis, senior researcher, REL Midwest
- Panelists will discuss their reactions to the research and stories presented in the documentary and will share additional information about their experiences related to supporting Latino students on their pathway to a postsecondary education. Students will discuss their experiences applying to college and the support they received throughout this process. Panelists will share resources and facilitate connections among attendees, who will also have an opportunity to ask the panelists questions.
- 3:30 p.m.              Adjourn