

Agenda

Connecting for Impact: Supporting Idaho Youth Success Beyond High School

December 10, 2018

8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. MST

Location TBD

Boise, Idaho

Convening Objectives

- Share information and knowledge about what’s happening nationally in career readiness, career and technical education, and work-based learning
- Construct a landscape map of initiatives, organizations, resources, and people who are working to ensure that at least 80 percent of Treasure Valley students go on to some form of education beyond high school and enter the career of their choice
- Create individual and group action plans
- Increase understanding of how design-based implementation research methods may enhance program effectiveness
- Build relationships across partners

Time	Activity	Lead(s)
8:30– 9:00	Networking	Jessica Ruehrwein and David Eastwood, Treasure Valley Education Partnership (TVEP)
9:00– 9:15	Welcome	Jessica Ruehrwein Mike Satz, University of Idaho
9:15– 10:15	Career Readiness for Youth: What’s Happening in Policy and Practice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Steve Klein will lead an interactive presentation on national policy and practice trends in career and technical education and workforce development (reauthorization of the Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education Act; work-based learning as a sequenced, developmental process; employability skills) - Focus on students/youth - “Best practices” — ideas to help focus the group 	Steve Klein, REL Northwest
10:15– 10:30	Break
10:30– 11:00	Designing for Better Implementation: A Review of the Design-Based Implementation Approach <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Aurora Moore will facilitate a presentation and discussion on how the design-based implementation framework can guide the partnership’s efforts 	Aurora Moore, REL Northwest

This agenda was prepared under Contract ED-IES-17-C-0009 by Regional Educational Laboratory Northwest, administered by Education Northwest. The content does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of IES or the U.S. Department of Education, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.

11:00– 11:45	What Do We Know About the Challenge/Problem? Data Review and Discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - David Eastwood will share findings from the high school exit survey; Aurora Moore will facilitate small-group discussions to make sense of the data 	David Eastwood and Beyond High School team
11:45– 12:30	Lunch and continued networking
12:30– 1:30	Landscape Mapping and Opportunity Analysis (whole-group activity) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Map your sector—from the perspective of “best practices” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o What policies, programs, and initiatives are happening in the Treasure Valley (in and out of school) to support career readiness? o What resources and tools are available and/or being built? o Who is doing this work? - Where are there gaps in the landscape? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Where are opportunities to fill gaps or strengthen what’s happening? o How might a design-based approach assist with current or new initiatives and activities? 	Jessica Ruehrwein, David Eastwood, Steve Klein, and Aurora Moore
1:30– 1:45	Break and continued networking
1:45– 2:45	Problem-Solving and Action Planning (whole-group activity) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Given the gaps and opportunities in our landscape, what action steps can the Beyond High School working group take to advance the broad goals of the partnership? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Individual and group action commitments 	Jessica Ruehrwein, David Eastwood, Steve Klein, and Aurora Moore
2:45– 3:00	Closure and evaluation	