

Supporting Micronesian Students in Hawai'i Through Family and Community Engagement

REL Pacific at McREL International

April 26, 2018

3:00–4:30 p.m. HST

Facilitated by:

Ms. Corrin Barros, Senior Research Specialist, Pacific Resources for Education and Learning

Dr. Katie Gao, Communications Specialist, REL Pacific at McREL International

Presenters & Panelists:

Bernadette Anderson, Director of Institutional Advancement, Academic Development Institute (ADI)

Emeliana Musrasrik-Carl, founder, Micronesia Resource & Research Institute (MRRRI)

Joakim Peter, senior specialist, PREL

Natalie Nimmer, founder, Pacific Relevance Consulting, LLC

- 3:00–3:10 Welcome, overview, and introductions
Ms. Corrin Barros, PREL
Dr. Katie Gao, REL Pacific at McREL
- 3:10–3:20 Family and community engagement for schools with migrant and indigenous students
Ms. Bernadette Anderson, ADI
- 3:20–4:00 Panel Discussion: Expert discussants will respond to Ms. Anderson's presentation of promising practices through their experiences in supporting Micronesian migrant families
- 4:00–4:15 Participant Q&A
- 4:15–4:30 Summary and Wrap-up