

AGENDA

REL Pacific Webinar: Effective Data Use to Support English Learner Students

Part 1: Using Data to Inform Policies and Practices for English Learner Students

May 25, 2021

12:00–1:30 p.m. Hawai'i Standard Time (HST)

Objectives

- Understand key elements of data-driven decision making.
- Understand assessment and other data needed to monitor the progress of English learner students.
- Become familiar with research that presents accountability as a cycle.
- Engage in discussion about the accountability cycle.
- Reflect on where your state or jurisdiction is in the cycle, including data and communication needs and next steps.

12:00 p.m.	Welcome, Introductions, & Overview Roger Fiedler, McREL International
12:10 p.m.	Research-Based Practices in Data Use and the Cycle of Accountability System Development Eric Crane, WestEd
12:40 p.m.	Breakout Groups: Data Needs Presenters & Participants
1:10 p.m.	Reflection & Next Steps Eric Crane, WestEd
1:25 p.m.	Closing & Stakeholder Feedback Survey Roger Fiedler, McREL International