

Leveraging Teacher Voice to Promote Teachers' Social and Emotional Learning Webinar

August 26, 2020

9:00–10:00 a.m. HST

3:00–4:00 p.m. EST

Facilitated by: Dr. Marisa Crowder, REL Pacific at McREL International

Presenters: Dr. Sammy Holquist, REL Pacific at McREL International

Jenny Gillet Hooper, instructional specialist

Sarah Pierce, manager for the Center for Strengthening Education Systems and senior advisor for Indian Education at REL Northwest

Objectives

- Provide an overview of social and emotional learning (SEL), the role of SEL in the classroom, and how SEL relates to student outcomes.
- Provide an overview of teacher SEL and how it relates to student SEL.
- Define teacher voice and review research-based promising practices for implementing teacher voice strategies to support teacher SEL.
- Learn how an education researcher and instructional specialist are supporting the use of teacher voice to support teacher SEL in schools and districts.

9:00– 9:05 a.m.

Welcome, Introductions, and Overview of REL Pacific and REL Northwest

- Dr. Crowder will welcome participants, provide a brief introduction to REL Pacific and REL Northwest, present the agenda and objectives, and introduce the presenters.

9:05–9:10 a.m.

Teacher Social and Emotional Learning

- Dr. Holquist will provide an overview of social and emotional learning (SEL) and how supporting teacher SEL can promote student SEL.

9:10– 9:20 a.m.

A Conversation Between a Researcher and Practitioner about Teacher Social and Emotional Learning

- Ms. Pierce and Ms. Gillet Hooper will discuss how they have supported teacher SEL.

9:20–9:25 a.m.

Teacher Voice and How it Relates to Teacher SEL

- Dr. Holquist will provide an overview of teacher voice and how it relates to teacher SEL and will share three promising practices for implementing teacher voice strategies to support teacher SEL: an instructional coaching model, personalized self-reflection, and professional learning.

9:25–9:40 a.m.

A Conversation Between a Researcher and Practitioner on Using Teacher Voice Strategies to Support Teacher SEL

- Ms. Pierce and Ms. Gillet Hooper will reflect on the promising practices for implementing teacher voice strategies to support teacher SEL.

9:40–9:55 a.m.

Participant Q&A

9:55–10:00 a.m.

Summary and Wrap-Up

- Dr. Crowder will administer the stakeholder feedback survey, thank participants, and provide information about upcoming events.