Below are everyday preventative strategies that educators can implement in virtual settings to support students’ social-emotional and mental health needs associated with trauma. These strategies generally target students’ safety, positive relationships, and self-regulation, and are focused on teaching appropriate skills and avoiding punishment (which may re-traumatize students). This can be appended to, and used together with, the “Common trauma symptoms in students and helpful strategies for educators” handout.