

Activity 1: Developing an interview protocol

For this activity, fill in the blanks to answer the following questions:

- A. Review your project topic and research questions from sessions 1 and 2.
- B. List potential types of participants who would best address your research questions.
- C. Complete the table to generate your interview protocol by outlining themes and developing a few example questions.
- D. How would responses to your interview protocol inform policy and/or practice?

A. Project topic:

---

List your research questions:

“What”:

---

“How”:

---

B. List potential types of participants who would best address your research questions.

Participants:

---

Criteria of participants:

---

C. Complete the table on the following page to develop your interview protocol. Outline themes that are relevant to your research topic and questions. Provide a few example interview questions that address your research questions.

What themes address your research questions?	What questions fit into each theme?

D. How would interview responses inform policy and/or practice?

---

---

---

---

---

Notes to self: