

Bridging Education Research to Practice Across the Region

REL Northeast & Islands partners with educators and policymakers to conduct, use, and share high-quality research and build capacity to use data to improve student outcomes.

Together, we address high-leverage needs in four priority areas:

EARLY CHILDHOOD
EDUCATION
AND SCHOOL
READINESS

COLLEGE AND CAREER READINESS

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND TEACHER PREPARATION

EDUCATIONAL EQUITY FOR ACCESS AND ATTAINMENT

Educators and Policymakers

REL Researchers and Staff

COORDINATION & COLLABORATION

Our research alliances and partnerships create research agendas focused on local or regional education needs.

We work with the nine other RELs and federally funded assistance centers across the region and country.

Through trainings, workshops, data coaching, and user-friendly tools, we advance the use of data in education decision making.

Our Ask-A-REL service provides quick-turnaround annotated bibliographies in response to stakeholder research questions.

APPLIED RESEARCH

Our original, empirical research projects rigorously investigate high-priority education questions.

Our published reports present research findings in clear and engaging ways that are accessible to broad audiences.

DISSEMINATION

Through our website, newsletters, and social media, we share evidence-based tools and resources.

Our webinars and events explore new research and its implications for local contexts.
