

A pre-service teacher certification policy and practice improvement program.rei

Resources

External funding

Teacher candidates

Teacher training curriculum and materials

Activities

Aligning pre-service courses with government teaching standards

Developing aligned teacher certification courses

Delivering certification courses

Outputs

The number of pre-service courses aligned with governmental teaching standards

The number of pre-service teacher candidates enrolled in a certification program

The number of pre-service teacher candidates who completed the certification program

Short-term Outcomes

Participants are aware of and understand the government teacher standards

Mid-term Outcomes

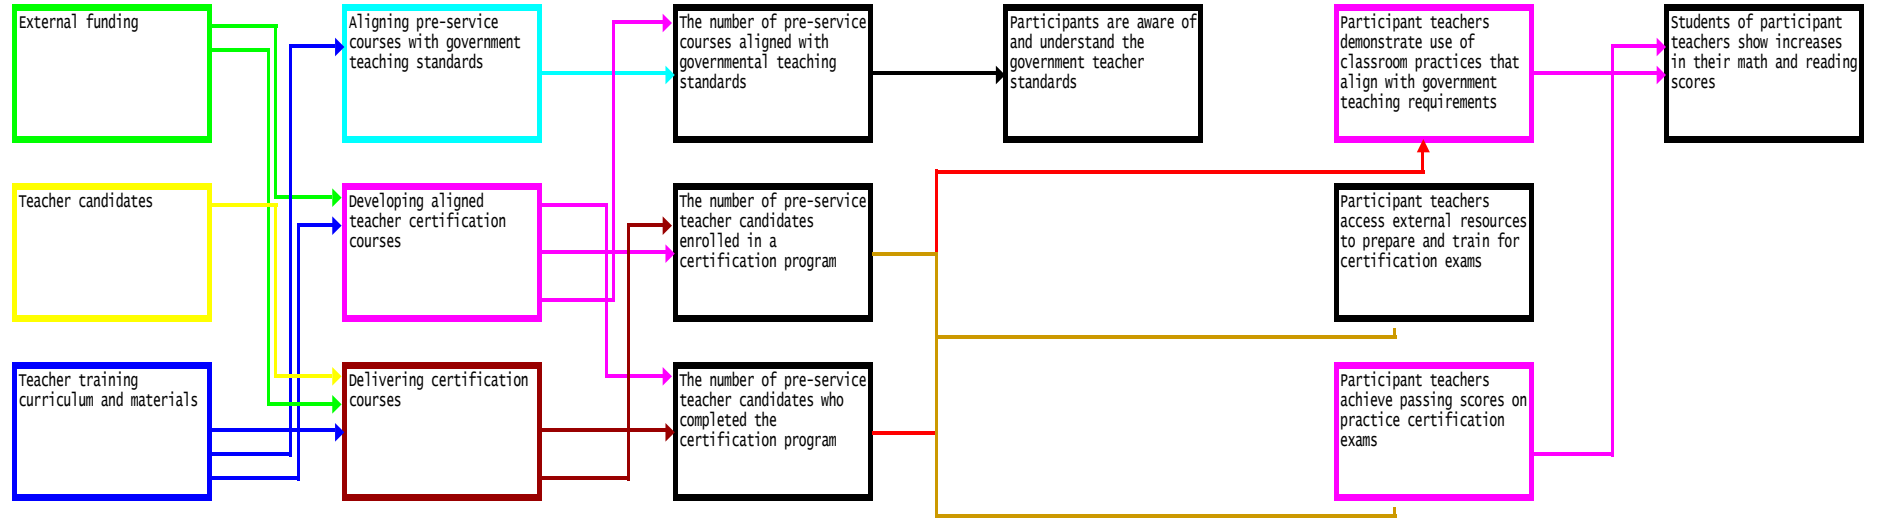

Participant teachers demonstrate use of classroom practices that align with government teaching requirements

Participant teachers access external resources to prepare and train for certification exams

Participant teachers achieve passing scores on practice certification exams

Long-term Outcomes

Students of participant teachers show increases in their math and reading scores

Project Name - A pre-service teacher certification policy and practice improvement program

Author - REL Pacific

School or organization - McREL

Description - Supports teacher effectiveness