The screenshot shows the homepage of the REL Southwest website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the IES REL logo, the text 'Regional Educational Laboratory Program', and a search bar. Below the navigation bar is a large orange map of the southwestern United States, highlighting the states of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, and Colorado. To the right of the map is a prominent orange box with the text 'REL Southwest: Putting Research into Action' and a sub-headline 'The Regional Educational Laboratory Southwest translates research to practice. In partnership with policymakers and practitioners in Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas.' Below the map and the orange box is a dark grey navigation bar with links for 'Our Work', 'Partnerships', 'Publications', and 'Events'. Underneath this is a section titled 'WHAT'S NEW AT REL SOUTHWEST' with two entries: one dated 'JUL 12' titled 'Introducing Our New Blog: The REL Southwest Roundup' and another dated 'MAY 5' titled 'Snapshot of REL Southwest's Collaborative Research Partnerships'. To the right of this section is an 'ASK A REL' section with a small image of a person's hands typing on a laptop.
