

Coaching session 2: Planning and development of resources and trainings for the ELI pilot

December 12, 2019

12:15–3:15 p.m. CT

GoToMeeting Webinar

Participant agenda

Session goals and objectives

- Summarize existing research on critical components for preparing teachers to administer assessments reliably and use data effectively to inform instruction.
- Draft the ELI pilot training agenda.
- Determine which existing resources from the Oklahoma State Department of Education and New Mexico can be used to support the early learning inventory (ELI) pilot and what additional resources are needed.
- Plan for next steps to perform the ELI pilot.

Session materials

- Handout 1—Slide presentation note-taking pages
- Handout 2—Participant agenda
- Handout 3—Outlining the training agenda
- Handout 4—Inventory of existing resources for the ELI pilot
- Handout 5—References

Time	Agenda item
12:15–12:30 p.m.	Welcome and workshop overview
12:30–12:45 p.m.	Research on assessment administration training and effective data use
12:45–1:30 p.m.	Activity to brainstorm and outline an agenda for the ELI pilot training
1:30–1:45 p.m.	Break
1:45–2:45 p.m.	Inventory of existing resources for the ELI pilot
2:45–3:15 p.m.	Next steps for the ELI pilot study