

Aligning K–12, College, and Workforce Systems to Ensure Better Jobs for Our Youth
November 13, 2017
12 p.m. HST/5 p.m. EST

Presented by:

Louise Yarnall, Ph.D., Sr. Researcher, SRI International
Kirsten Miller, Communications Manager, REL Pacific at McREL International

Objectives

- Understand the importance of aligning secondary and postsecondary curriculum with local workforce needs.
- Learn about the key elements of aligning education to the workforce and the phases of implementing an alignment strategy.

- 12:00–12:10 p.m. Welcome, overview of REL Pacific, and introductions
Kirsten Miller, REL Pacific at McREL International
- 12:10–12:35 p.m. Presentation on the need for education-workforce alignment, including current and pending legislation
Dr. Louise Yarnall, SRI International
- 12:35–1:15 p.m. Presentation on the core elements of education-workforce alignment:
What can make alignment more successful?
Dr. Louise Yarnall
- 1:15–1:25 p.m. Q&A
Dr. Louise Yarnall
- 1:25–1:30 p.m. Wrap-up
Kirsten Miller