

Accountable Talk

Purpose: Providing students with sample questions and sentence stems to use when collaborating and providing feedback can help students become more independent and take more ownership of their learning.

Directions: Thinking about how accountable talk can be used in different parts of the writing process, brainstorm questions and sentence stems that can be used to guide students.

