

Prepare to Share: Adding Writing Time to the Day

Directions: Complete this activity after Session 1.1 and share it in Session 1.2.

Add time in your class schedule for students to engage in writing practice. This can be during a traditional writing block or during a different content area. Complete the following reflection in advance of your next PLC session.

Planning

During what part of the day will you have students engage in writing?

What writing task will students complete?

Reflection

Data or observations collected from writing task (e.g., percent of students engaged, skill mastery, checks for understanding)

Challenges (either anecdotal or grounded in above data)

Successes (either anecdotal or grounded in above data)
